Carol Part 2 49sem 79

Awaking in the middle of a prodigiously tough snore, and sitting up in bed to get his thoughts together, Scrooge had no occasion to be told that the bell was again upon the stroke of One. He felt that he was restored to consciousness in the right nick of time, for the especial purpose of holding a conference with the second messenger dispatched to him through Jacob Marley's intervention. But, finding that he turned uncomfortably cold when he began to wonder which of his curtains this new spectre would draw back, he put them every one aside with his own hands, and, lying down again, established a sharp look-out all round the bed. For he wished to challenge the Spirit on the moment of its appearance, and did not wish to be taken by surprise and made nervous.

Gentlemen of the free-and-easy sort, who plume themselves on being acquainted with a move or two, and being usually equal to the time of day, express the wide range of their capacity for adventure by observing that they are good for anything from pitch-and-toss to manslaughter; between which opposite extremes, no doubt, there lies a tolerably

"Are spirits' lives so short?" asked Scrooge.
"My life upon this globe is very brief," replied the Ghost. "It ends to-night."
"To-night!" cried Scrooge.
"To-night at midnight. Hark! The time is drawing near."
The chimes were ringing the three-quarters past eleven at that moment.
"Forgive me if I am not justified in what I ask," said Scrooge, looking intently at the Spirit's robe, "but I see something strange, and not belonging to yourself, protruding from your skirts. Is it a foot or a claw?"
"It might be a claw, for the flesh there is upon it," was the Spirit's sorrowful reply. "Look here."
From the foldings of its robe it brought two children; wretched, abject, frightful, hideous, miserable. They knelt down at its feet, and clung upon the outside of its garment.
"Oh, Man! look here! Look, look, down here!" exclaimed the Ghost.

Story Art

The screenshot shows the Instagram Story Art interface. At the top, there are three icons: a camera, a heart, and a shopping bag. Below them, the "Popular" section displays four story art cards. The first card, titled "My Story", features a woman laughing on a beach with the caption "In memory, there are some moments, what experience, nothing special.". The second card shows a woman in a bikini on a beach with the caption "You live only once, but if you do it right, make it count". The third card is a portrait of a woman looking up. The fourth card shows a street scene with buildings. To the right of the popular section is a "See all" button. Below this is the "Highlight Cover" section, which shows five circular options: a hanger, a globe, a trophy, a letter "A", and another letter. Each option has a small crown icon below it. To the right of this section is a "See all" button. At the bottom is the "Animated" section, which shows four video preview cards. The first card is a waterfall with the caption "BELIEVE IN YOURSELF". The second card is a person in a dark setting. The third card is a person in a hat at the beach. The fourth card is a woman's face with a price tag of $50 and the caption "Eye Shadow". To the right of the animated section is a "See all" button. A large black circle with a white plus sign is positioned over the bottom right corner of the animated section. At the very bottom are three navigation icons: "Templates" (a square with a grid), "Collection" (a stack of books), and "My Story" (a spiral notebook). The number "142" is located in the bottom right corner of the main screen area.
